NEW YORKERS LAUNCH BIG FINANCIAL PROJECT

(By The Associated Negro Press) New York, Dec. 30.—A project is on foot to open a stock exchange in Harlem for the trading in securities of corporations owned and managed by Colored people. The proposed name is the Harlem Stock Exchange. The sponsors of the proposed institution sponsors of the proposed institution are said to be negotiating for a building at Seventh Avenue and 138th St. The plan calls for the issuance of $100,000 stock in the corporation managing the exchange—$25,000 common and $75,000 preferred. The par value will be $5 a share. There are said to be more than 100 corporations in New York owned by and selling securities to Colored people. Banks, real estate companies and other business are in-cluded.

OKLAHOMA FARMERS SELL COTTON FOR LESS THAN OTHER STATES

Growers' Association Has Remedy

Oklahoma farmers were receiving 4 cents per pound less for their cotton the first of this month than the average price paid throughout the United States according to figures of the federal bureau of crop estimates.

The average for the entire country on that date was 14 cents per pound, while Oklahoma farmers received but 10.5 cents average.

Surrounding states were receiving more than Oklahoma. The Arkansas average was 13.3 cents; Tennessee, 13 cents, and Texas, 13.2 cents. Oklahoma's production was estimated at 1.300,000 bales.

THE WORLD

(Special to the Tulsa Star) Washington, D. C., Dec. 30,-Williams Clifford, President of the Monumental Pictures Corporation, re-cently signed a contract with the Sea-board Film Corporation of New York City for world distribution of the Monumental Monthly, a news reel to be released each month, picturing the achievements of the American Negro in this country and the progress of the darker races of the world.

"The educational and inspirational news that this news reel will give to the masses of Colored people in this country is beyond estimation. Each month you will have an opportunity to see on the screen, members of our own race that have achieved success along all lines of endeavor, and there will be an opportunity for propaganda in the interest of my people, Licutenant Clifford said when interviewed by a newspaper correspondent. He further states that it will be

Grand Rapids, Mich, Dec. 30.—That the country is thoroughly aroused against the evil of lynching, is evident by the ringing editorials that appear in the daily press, of which the Grand Rapids Herald is an example:

"Down at Wise, Va., they have a sheriff who might well be held up as a model for other public safety officials of the country.

"In the jail at Wise is a Negron named Williams, charged with assault and robbery of an aged man. On Sunday a mob stormed the jail and attempted to take Williams from the authorities. The mob was ugly and of no mean proportions. Other sheriffs might have opened the doors to the juil of no mean proportions.
